MRS. GEORGE STEVEN WEAKLEY
the former Miss Brenda Dale Layne

WED IN EVENING CEREMONY

The marriage of Miss Brenda Dale Layne to George Steven Weakley took place Saturday evening, July 8, at 7 o'clock in Memorial United Methodist Church, Appomattox.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack David Layne. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred A. Weakley, Jr., all of Appomattox.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was the Rev. P. Edward Leonard, Jr., pastor of the church.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Teresa Quensenberry, organist, and Miss Donna Volturo, flutist. Mrs. Charlene R. Lawson, soloist for the wedding, presented the songs "Colour My World" and "The Wedding Song."

The bride, escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents, wore a traditional gown of white quiana. The bodice was covered in Venise lace and seeded pearls with a Queen Anne neckline. It featured extended sleeves of lace and an empire waist of lace dropping to a natural waistline in back. The skirt, flattered with accordion pleats, was bordered in Venise lace and ended in a chapel train.

The veil was a Juliet cap, covered in matching lace and seeded pearls. The fingertip illusion was appliqued with Venise lace with a scalloped edge.

The bride carried a bouquet of white and coral rosebuds which were accented with white carnations, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Miss Gail Layne, of Appomattox, was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a slipper length dress of coral polyester with a matching chiffon capelet. She carried a nosegay of coral rosebuds with yellow and white carnations, accented by coral and yellow streamers. As a hairpiece she wore a coral rosebud with baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Freda J. Layne, sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Patsy H. Pierce, Miss Shelby Dunnam, cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Janet Booth, all of Appomattox. Their dresses were identical so that of the honor attendant, and they carried nosegays of coral rosebuds and white carnations, accented by coral and yellow streamers. As a hairpiece she wore a coral rosebud with baby's breath.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Freda J. Layne, sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Patsy H. Pierce, Miss Shelby Dunnam, cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Janet Booth, all of Appomattox. Their dresses were identical to that of the honor attendant, and they carried nosegays of coral rosebuds and white carnations, accented by coral streamers. Their hairpieces were of coral rosebuds with baby's breath.

Miss Christie Smith, of Appomattox, was flower girl. She wore a slipper length dress of coral taffeta overlayed with floral sheer. She wore a coral rosebud with baby's breath in her hair and carried a white basket of coral rose petals.

Ringbearer was Master Beau Wilkerson, of Appomattox.

Mr. Wilfred A. Weakley, Jr., of Appomattox, was his son's best man. Ushers were Mr. Jack Layne, Jr., brother of the bride, Mr. Michael Weakley, brother of the bridegroom, Mr. Bobby Layne, cousin of the bride, and Mr. Tommy Bryant, all of Appomattox.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Layne selected a floor length gown of mint green polyester with a matching long sleeved chiffon capelet ending in French cuffs at the wrist. A scalloped edge formed at the bottom of the capelet. She wore a comb of white roses in her hair.

Mrs. Weakley, mother of the groom, wore a floor length gown of pale yellow chiffon with a matching long sleeved chiffon jacket ending in French cuffs at the wrist and was gathered in a sash at the waistline. She wore a comb of yellow roses in her hair.

Mrs. June Chernault and Mrs. Edith Scruggs served as mistresses of ceremonies.

Attending the guest register was Miss Paula Franklin, cousin of the groom. Mrs. Pam M. Weakley, sister in law of the groom, issued the programs.

Following the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall. Serving the cake were Mrs. Brenda F. Gowin and Mrs. Teresa Woods; Mrs. Frankie D. Hardwick, Mrs. Pauline L. McFadden, and Mrs. Dale W. Kidd served at the punch bowl. Watching over the table were Mrs. Estelle L. McFadden and Mrs. Florence L. Johnson. Mrs. Bettie L. Thomas attended the guest register for the reception.

For her going-away outfit, the bride chose a white dress complemented by pink pin stripes with matching accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox County High School and is employed by the Appomattox County School Board. The bridegroom is also a graduate of Appomattox County High School and is employed by Armstrong Furniture Industries in Appomattox.

After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will make their home in Appomattox.

Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Janice Marie Bryant of Orange to Mr. Thomas Walter Rupp of Baltimore, Maryland took place July 1, 1978 at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in Gordonsville Pentecostal Holiness Church.

The bride is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Oscar E. Bryant of Orange and the groom is the son of Mrs. Marjorie Rupp of Baltimore, Maryland.

Rev. Oscar Bryant, father of the bride; Rev. Bill Terry of Hertford, North Carolina, brother-in-law of the bride; and Rev. Garry Bryant, brother of the bride, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Miss Yvonne Syaan of Richmond, pianist and soloist, provided the wedding music, "Holy Spirit Thou Art Welcome," "A Love Song," and "Gentle Shepherd."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza and peau de auge lace over peau do sole. The neckline was accented with seed pearls and Chantilly lace on the bodice and skirt. Her train fell from a bow at the waistline in back. She wore a white wide brim hat accented with blue daisies, white bow and streamers. She carried a White lace bride's Bible with white roses, blue daisies and white streamers.

Mrs. Rita Terry of Hertford, North Carolina, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a slipper length gown of pastel blue chiffon over silk organza and a wide brim white hat with blue streamers. She carried a white rose with blue streamers.

The bride's attendants were Miss Delores Rupp of Baltimore, Maryland, sister of the groom; and Karen Atkins of Gordonsville. They wore light blue slipper length gowns with white, wide brim hats with blue streamers and carried a white rose with blue streamers.

George Rupp of Baltimore, Maryland was best man. Ushers were Joe Rupp of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; and Rob Painter of Baltimore, Maryland.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall at Orange Pentecostal Holiness Church in Orange.

The bride's mother wore a light pink and white two-piece suit and a corsage of white carnations and pink daisies.

The mother of the groom wore a long sleeve yellow dress and corsage of white carnations and yellow daisies.

For their wedding trip to the Shennandoah Valley, the bride chose to wear a light blue street length dress with lace accent around the neckline. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The couple will make their home in Greenville, South Carolina where they both are students at Holmes Theological Seminary.

Shower in Honor Of Miss Bryant

A miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Sharon Bryant was held on Saturday, July 8 in the Pamplin Fire House in Pamplin, VA.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Herman Richardson, Miss Sabrina Richardson and Tina Moore.

Among the honored guests were Mrs. Clayton Bryant, mother of the bride-to-be, and Mrs. Eddie Moore, mother of the groom-to-be, and Mrs. Fred Robertson, grandmother of the groom.

A yellow and white color scheme was carried out and an arrangement of yellow and blue daisies, baby breath and sweet williams graced the serving table, with silver candelabras.
